About

Dr. Randi Boyette is one of the most influential leaders shaping the future of the aesthetics and medical marketing industries. With a rare combination of clinical insight, digital expertise, and business acumen, Randi has become a strategic force behind some of the industry's fastest-growing platforms and most impactful innovations.

She is the host of The Dr. Randi Show podcast, proudly sponsored by NewBeauty, where she sits down with the most influential leaders, innovators, and founders shaping the aesthetics, beauty, and wellness industries. With a combined social reach of 22 million across platforms and an email network of 48,000 aesthetic professionals and 5,000 clinics, the show reaches both professionals and consumers eager for insight, innovation, and inspiration. With over 25,000 average episode engagement, The Dr. Randi Show explores breakthrough technologies, emerging trends, and the ideas transforming the future of medical aesthetics, beauty, and wellness.

As Chief Marketing Officer of NewBeauty, she forged a strategic partnership between Spark and NewBeauty to expand its digital capabilities and national influence. Her leadership has helped modernize NewBeauty's marketing presence while maintaining its legacy as the industry's authority on beauty innovation.

Randi also serves as Corporate Development Advisor at AmSpa, where she helps shape national strategy, drive key partnerships, and fuel innovation within one of the most respected and influential organizations in medical aesthetics today.

She is the Founder & CEO of Spark Medical Marketing, North America's largest aesthetics marketing firm, serving over 4,000 clinics with data-driven campaigns, high-impact digital strategy, and proprietary tools and platforms. Under her leadership, Spark launched SyncAI, an AI-powered marketing division redefining how clinics engage and convert patients across channels.

She also plays a pivotal role in guiding enterprise growth as Strategic Growth Advisor at MedShift, where she leads marketing strategy, national education efforts, and expansion of the MedShift Store. Through this partnership, Randi supports MedShift's work with 4,300+ clinics and 42 device and pharmaceutical manufacturers.

As Principal Visionary Leader of BE HER, Randi is redefining what it means to support women in aesthetics, with a powerful blend of mentorship, business-building tools, and access to industry-best products through a rapidly growing, high-energy community.

By operating across the industry's most influential platforms—NewBeauty, AmSpa, Spark, MedShift, and BE HER, Randi drives growth, education, and strategic innovation from every angle of the aesthetics ecosystem.
